Entech Welcomes Mark Feeg

Reading, PA - Entech Engineering, Inc. (Entech) is excited to announce the recent hiring of Mark Feeg, PE, LEED, AP to our team as a Senior Project Manager in the Facilities Planning and Design Group.

Mark, a Professional Engineer and LEED certified professional, brings nearly 20 years' experience which includes work with air quality control, nuclear, and natural gas projects. At Entech he will be focusing on dehumidification, HVAC and Energy Savings Improvement Program (ESIP) projects for education and industrial clients.

Entech's Stuart Heisey, Director of MEP Services, said about Mark:

"Mark's addition to our team enhances our MEP capabilities in the educational, industrial and municipal markets as well as giving us a deeper bench of experienced project managers. His skills will broaden our ability to help our clients manage informed improvements to their facilities."

About Mark:

Mark is a graduate of Penn State University. He resides in Wernersville, PA. When Mark is not at Entech, he loves spending time with his wife, Lynn, and daughter, Kara. He also enjoys going Karting and all motorsports as well as investing.
