Entech Welcomes Patrick Burke, P.E., MBA

Reading, PA - Entech Engineering, Inc (Entech) is pleased to announce the addition of Patrick Burke, P.E., MBA, to our team as Project Manager.

Pat has more than 25 years of technical and leadership experience in the public water and wastewater industry. A well-known and recognized leader in the water industry, he has developed strong working and personal relationships with Authorities, regulators, contractors, and other professionals in this field.

Robert Weir, P.E., Executive Vice President, commented,

“Pat’s addition to our team strengthens our core of experienced project managers and enhances our capabilities in the municipal and industrial markets. Having worked with Pat in the past, we knew his skills and expertise would be a great asset to Entech and our clients..”

Pat also serves on Governor Wolf’s Upper/Middle Susquehanna Basin Regional Water Committee and is active in professional organizations including the American Water Works Association (AWWA), Rural Water Association, the American Society of Sanitary Engineering (ASSE), and the Association of State Dam Safety Officials (ASDSO).

About Pat:

Pat was born and raised in New Philadelphia, Schuylkill County. He and his wife of 30 years, Lisa, have three grown children and reside in Elysburg, Northumberland County. When he is away from the office, he enjoys playing ice hockey and staying physically fit.
